

General Terms and Conditions for KBB swap programme "K2S" (Knowledge 2 swap)

---

- Kompressorenbau Bannewitz GmbH (KBB) will charge customers a fixed service exchange fee and deposit
- damage of parts, replacement of grey market parts, replacement of parts exceeded the recommended lifetime or other replacements due to maintenance or operation not according to the operating instructions are not part of the service exchange fee
- Depending on these, the reimbursement of the deposit may be deducted, however never exceeding it
- the appraisal of damage is incumbent upon KBB, in this case a repair and inspection report will be provided
- the K2S unit must be returned strictly within 60 days after delivery or according to the agreement
- if not received on time, the deposit will be invoiced accordingly
- The unit to be returned becomes the property of KBB
- The transfer of ownership is based on the vice versa transfer of ownership for the unit provided by KBB in accordance with the KBB GTC valid at the time
- The K2S unit must be returned to Kompressorenbau Bannewitz GmbH, Horkenstraße 2a, 01728 Bannewitz, mentioning our order number or vessel/installation name as a minimum
- shipping condition for the returned K2S unit is DDP (above mentioned KBB address) based on Incoterms 2010 unless agreed different
- if the returned K2S unit is shipped on any other Incoterm than DDP the arising cost for handling and duties related to the import will be invoiced additionally unless agreed different